Dear Spanners,

After considerable discussion and consideration, we have decided to finalize our Stage 2 start date as the first work day of July. For most of us, that will be Tuesday July 6th, but your CC will be working over the weekend, so if any of you wish to randomize subjects or work on July 5th, we can make that happen for you. We are grateful for everyone's feedback and we are particularly grateful to the sites that had prepared to start in June--thanks for your kind understanding.

We look forward to the interim analysis; please continue working on the backlog of video assessment.

Best regards,

PL
